LOCAL SCHOOLS BURY HATCHET

G. U. and George Washington Will Play Two Basketball Games This Season.

AFTER 7 YEARS' BREAK

Indoor Events at Convention Hall Also Will See Rival Colleges in Competition.

The entering wedge in renewing athletic relations between Georgetown and George Washington universities was inserted last night when Managers Horton, of the Hilltoppers' basketball quint, and Murray, of the Hatchettes, together with Graduate Manager of Athletics Charles Cox, met and arranged to play two basketball games, the first in National Guards Armory on the night of January 6 and the second in Ryan gym February 3.

The significance of booking these games is of more than passing interest, for the reason that it means that Georgetown and George Washington after a break of seven years have decided to bury the hatchet.

Georgetown plans to hold an indoor meet this winter in Convention Hall. George Washington will also foster a set of games, and the Hilltop athletes will not only be invited, but will take part in the Hatchettes meet. George Washington athletes will return the compliment.

There is every reason to believe that next fall George Washington will attempt to launch a football team. If so they will be found on Georgetown's schedule.

Athletic relations between the local universities were severed in 1897 principally because of a lot of unpleasantness at a football game and the unsavory newspaper notoriety which followed.

SOUTHERN TOSSERS DEFEAT COMPANY K

Fast Local Quint Trims Maryland Guards of Silver Spring in Good Game, 16 to 13.

Last night the Southern Athletic Club journeyed to Silver Spring, Md., and took the fast Company K team of that town into camp by the score of 16 to 13. The game was fast and close all the way, the score at the end of the first half being 9-7 in favor of the home team. By a splendid rally, however, the visitors came to the front in the last minutes of play, and secured a winning margin in easy fashion. The Southern Athletic Club would like to arrange games with any teams in Washington or vicinity.

BRIGADE TEAM WINS FROM SEMESTER FIVE

Business High School Classmen Lose to Clubmen in Hard-fought Game, 41 to 27.

In a hard-fought, closely played game, the Brigade Athletic Club defeated the strong Seventh Semester Business High school basketball team last night at the Virginia Avenue gymnasium, Fifth street and Virginia avenue southeast, by a score of 41 to 27.

The splendid defensive work of Cornell and Miller at guards, and the fast and accurate passing and shooting of the three forwards, Flood, Bachman, and Towers, for the winners, were the features of the game. Julligan and Downey did the best work for the losers. Line-up and summary:

Football practice by Arc Light. Football practice by Arc Light at night was the rule at Johns Hopkins University this fall. The squad was ordered to report at Homewood Field, their athletic grounds, near Baltimore, in the evening. The light was furnished by eighteen arc lights supplemented by two acetone reflectors. The arena was strong around the field, while the reflectors were stationed at the ends. The arrangement gave very low light.

Adams goes to Cornell.

Bristol Adams has resigned from the Bureau of Information of the Post, Service, Department of Agriculture, to accept a position in the Department of Information of the Agricultural College of Cornell University. He is to leave the Post Service on December 15. Adams met last night at Sherwood, Presbyterian Church, Rhode Island avenue and Second street northwest, on "Taking Series of the National Year."

Petrie played twenty minutes in the Carlisle-Georgetown game in 1911, taking Capt. "Pop" Dwyer's place in a guard position. This twenty minutes of play against the Indians will decide Petrie ineligible to don the molehocks for the Blue and Gray in 1915.

NEW HOME FOR BOSTON BRAVES TO SEAT 40,000

Boston, Dec. 5.—James E. Gaffney, president of the world's champion Boston Braves, closed a deal by long distance telephone yesterday for a parcel of real estate at Commonwealth and Babcock streets, upon which he plans to erect a steel and concrete ball park for the Boston National League. Secretary Herman Nickerson, of the Braves, declared that it was Mr. Gaffney's intention to commence building immediately. It is believed the new park will be ready for occupancy before the middle of the 1916 season.

The site of the new home of the Braves is one of the most accessible in the city and far more convenient than the old one, which was located on the corner of the old Fenway grounds in 1907. The new park will be on Commonwealth street, between the Babcock street and Pleasant street extension, respectively, and is 525 and 580 feet. The back shows the Boston and Albany Railway tracks for a distance of 685 feet.

The stands will seat 40,000 persons, and if possible will be a single decker.

GALLAUDET QUINT TO MEET STRONG TEAMS

Schedule of Buff and Blue Goal Tossers Calls for Games with Fast Clubs.

The Gallaudet College basketball team has not been able to do very much toward getting into shape for their first game which takes place at Kendall Green the evening of December 12, against Catholic University, because of the fact that all the boys and girls at the college were vaccinated last Monday, and the basketball squad are all going around with sore arms.

There were about twenty-five candidates who reported to Coach Jack Haas at a meeting held in the "Gym" last Monday afternoon. Keely, the two Wenger boys, Capt. Rasmussen, Rockwell, Foltz, Marshall, and Clauson, of last year's squad, are again candidates for their positions, but they will certainly have to show a lot of improvement to again win their places on the team.

Among the new candidates are Schrowe, who played forward with Stiekley, of Virginia, while in a prep school; Mellis and Dehman, of Kansas University; Hiram Millman, of Towson, are the best of the men who have reported. It is Coach Haas' intention to have two squads. The men who are relegated to the second squad will be under the supervision of Physical Director Heimark, who will arrange a schedule of games for them. Just as soon as a player on the second squad shows that he is playing a better game than any man on the first squad, he will take the latter's place.

The entire college is very enthusiastic over the prospect of a successful season, and are willing to support the team to the limit. The following is the schedule for the varsity games:

December 12—Catholic University at Kendall Green.
December 19—St. John's at Annapolis.
January 9—Baltimore City College at Kendall Green.
January 12—Game pending.
January 16—George Washington at Kendall Green.
January 23—Lynch College at Baltimore.
January 26—Catholic University at Carroll Institute.
February 3—Game pending with Y. M. C. A.
February 6—Ferdinand College at Kendall Green.
February 13—Game pending with Y. M. C. A.
February 20—Mount St. Mary's at Emmitsburg, Md.
February 27—Pennsylvania Military Institute at Chester, Pa.
February 28—Ferdinand College at New York.
March 6—Georgetown University at Ryan Gym, Georgetown.
Teams desiring games with the second squad may communicate with Physical Director Heimark, care of Gallaudet College.

YALE WANTS HARVARD GAME ON THANKSGIVING

Sons of Eli Desire More Time After the Princeton Battle.

Yale's football authorities are considering the wisdom of making a demand upon Harvard that their annual game be played on Thanksgiving Day instead of the Saturday before, which has been the date for many years. The contest of the 1915 is that they may play Princeton on Saturday previous to the Harvard game, it doesn't give them time to recuperate. Harvard and Yale insist that they should have at least twelve days.

A telegram was sent on the top of the heap and Harvard was screaming at Yale, who was able to play three hard games on consecutive days to Yale.

The suggestion is now so acute at Yale that the suggestion has been made seriously that if Harvard will not consent to a Thanksgiving Day game Yale should either play Princeton much earlier or arrange a schedule with Princeton and Harvard by which each team would be played in alternate years.

The Yale authorities have killed all talk of moving that game to a head-on clash, with the understanding that he will be in charge of foot ball at New Haven for at least two more years. Yale has no intention of making the football game and believes it will bear fruit next year.

Johnson's Leap to Feds Recalls the Time He Was Offered the Entire Club by Tom Noyes

Walter Thinks No More of Money Than He Does of His Right Eye.

FAILED TO KEEP WORD

Washington Fans Refuse to Uphold Him and Club Will Not Lose Their Patronage.

By WILLIAM FEET.

"Sentiment in baseball—there ain't no such thing. If you don't believe it ask Walter Johnson, the National's great pitcher who last week hurdled to the Feds for a few paltry dollars a year more than Griffith was willing to offer for his services. "I'm in baseball for the money there is in it. I am out for the coin and for Walter Johnson, first, last and all the time."

That's what Johnson said in New York one bright sunny day last spring when
